3. were in for their regular briefing and we spent most of our time discussing the work which Lucile has been doing in the Office of Logistics. We also philosophized about the role which the Management Staff should or could play in this Agency. I am afraid that I was a little brutal with Lucile in telling her that from where I sat I could not see any tangible benefits derived from more than one year which she and her team had spent in the Office of Logistics.

5. I talked with about the case of and confirmed that the Director, after a full discussion of the problem with General Cabell, had approved of assignment to the Office of Training 176-00183R000350070048-4
